Talisman
1960

Dedication

The Seniors of the Walstonburg High School
proudly present the 1960 edition of
THE TALISMAN.
We dedicate its pages to
our parents,
who through the years
have loved us, taught us the beauty of shared happiness, the victory of retrieving a mistake,
the importance of imagination tempered
by reason.
To them we extend our love.

Principal

Dear Seniors:

As you leave your Alma Mater, face the golden opportunities which lie [illegible] you. Face them realistically and objectively. Use your initiative, imagi[illegible] and wisdom to claim them.

During the past years, the time and effort, you, your parents and teache[illegible] given constitutes the foundation for you to strive to become a better citizen, [illegible] church and community worker.

Prepare yourself, be ready—your time will come.

Respectively yours,

Harry J. Archer

We Leave

We, the Senior Class of 1960, in conclusion to our departure, do hereby declare and publish our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

To the faculty we leave our desires for them to give future students more encouragement.

ARTICLE II

To Mrs. Britt, our senior sponsor, we leave our sincere appreciation and respect for the cooperation she has given to us throughout our Senior year.

ARTICLE III

To the Juniors we leave our title as "Seniors."

ARTICLE IV

To the Sophomores we leave our love for dancing.

ARTICLE V

To the Freshmen we leave in hope that they will learn to conduct themselves properly.

ARTICLE VI

MELVIN BASS leaves his courteous ability not "fresh" with girls to L. D. West.
A. V. BATTEN leaves his courteous manners to "Nub" Craft.
BILLY BOYKIN leaves his loudness to anyone who can use it.
JANIE BURRESS leaves her love for boys to Linda Evans.
CECIL CLAYBORNE leaves his "love" for Sociology to Bobby Galloway.
RALPH CLAYBORNE leaves nothing, he'll need it all in the future.
JULIA COX leaves her flattering smile to Linda Parker.
RUBY DENTON leaves happily.
TENY GAYE leaves her ability to catch the boy to Faye Jones.
SKIPPER HALL leaves his talkative ways to Alton Wells.
RAY HARDISON leaves five inches of his height to Kenneth Sutton.
PAT HARRELL leaves her green eyes to all the "cool cats."
DOT HART leaves her sweet disposition to Belle Roberson even though she doesn't need it.
PEGGY HOLLOMAN leaves her bright red blush to Joyce Garris.
JAMES HUMPHREY leaves to the freshmen his knowledge he has received in high school.
BILLY JENKINS leaves his sweet personality to Billy Walston.
ROY JONES leaves his scoring ability to anyone who can play the position.
DOUGLAS KEARNEY leaves his romantic ways to Raymond Wooten. (who needs them.)
RUSSELL MERCER leaves his good looks to all boys who can use them.
ANDY MEWBORN leaves his ability to type to anyone who needs it.
MARILENE MEWBORN leaves her position as chief cheerleader to Nancy Adams.
HELEN MOORE leaves her kindness to her sisters; Ruby and Geraldine Moore.
JIMMY MOORING leaves his aggravating ability to Bobby Walston.
HILDA PADGETT leaves her quiet and calm manners to Daris Minshew.
CONNIE PARKER leaves her natural curly hair to Jean Norville.
ROBERT ROBERSON leaves his good school spirit to Alex Mewborn.
JERRY SMITH leaves his dependability to Kenneth Jones.

Best All Around

JESSIE ANDREW MEWBORN
MARILENE MEWBORN

Whether it's at the piano or kitchen stove or speechmaking in the classroom, Marilene is equally at ease. Andy's cooperation and good personality won him the title.

Citizenship

JAMES STUART HUMPHREY
MARILENE MEWBORN

All through school Marilene and James had commendable character and combined with this fine leadership enabled them to receive this honor.

The Past

The year was Nineteen Hundred and Fifty Six when we first undertook the task of becoming Freshmen. Thirty six in number, we took everything in the least of worry. We had joys and sorrows of our own without worrying about the rest of the high school.

Our sponsor was Mr. Ben Wethington, loved by all. He was a happy carefree teacher who didn't like to study or stay indoors, so none of us argued or put up any resistance.

We also had a very athletic class. We had two boys to make the varsity basketball team, Roy Jones and Jerry Smith. We also had some good baseball players, Jimmy Harrell, Andy Mewborn, Douglas Kearney.

Finally our greenhand year came to an end and we were about to take another step in life.

Now we were Sophomores and a little more grown up. Our number had decreased by six. Six friends were out of school to take on life alone. We also gained two new members.

Our sponsor this year was Mrs. Jane Anthony, a fine teacher and a sweet person. Under her motherly guidance we undertook to making money for our many needs. We did several different things to obtain that "scarcity" money. We sold candy, had sweetsales, and a few others. This year was one of our most prosperous years.

Two years had passed now and once again it was time to take another broad step in our school life.

"Juniors," how good that word sounded. We were no longer underdogs but we were next to being big dogs. The year began with Mrs. Ernestine Godfrey as our homeroom teacher. This year had the promise of being our big year. We had to plan for our semi-annual Junior-Senior Banquet and this began right away. We appointed committee after committee, and we all worked triumphantly to get together our Banquet. The theme of our Banquet was "Evening in Paris." We had an excellent reception and everyone seemed to be well pleased. We also had our Junior supper and our play. Both were very successful, especially our play, "Aaron Slick From Pumpkin Crick." Our cast seemed to be very talented, especially Pat Harrell. This year was one of the happiest of our career. We enjoyed working and struggling to make things successful.

At last we approached the Senior door staring life squarely in the face. Now the moment had finally come; we were a bit uncertain, but there was little time for that after we had plunged into the first few days of school. There the year was like a panorama passing before our eyes. There was our Annual Staff suffering vigorously to get our annual published. James Humphrey our president, presided over our meetings. Mrs. Rosalind P. Britt, our sweet homeroom teacher, guided us with the utmost care, and never led us astray. She never gave us too little of her time, and we do thank her.

Times of happiness, times of disappointment; faces happy as only youth can be. We are pulling the curtain on our high school years, holding in our hearts bright dreams for the future.

There was always more fun than a barrel of monkeys when Connie and Billy were around. They were always gay, friendly and willing to listen.

Most Likely to Succeed

ROBERT LEE ROBERSON
MARILENE MEWBORN

Marilene's determination to major in Home Economics never wavered during her high school career, reflecting her constancy of purpose. Robert's knowledge always impressed his classmates.

To the Future

Have you ever had a dream that was so real you just lived the whole thing? Last night I attended a banquet that took place in the days of old Scotland. This was a time in which there was color, bravery and valor in which the upper class of people and the favorites of the land carried on a life of carefree enjoyment.

Gradually the scene changed as I saw my fellow classmates in Mrs. Taylor's English class and heard her reciting:

> God, God forgive us all! Look after her;
> Remove from her the means of all annoyance
> And still keep eyes upon her. So, good night;
> My mind she has mated, and amazed my sight.
> I think but dare not speak.

.And as I looked at each of my friends I saw them change before my eyes.

First I recognize A.V. BATTEN and realize that he has achieved his ambition of being a highway patrolman, he always did want the fastest Ford around. As I begin talking with him I find there have been many changes since our high school days. ROBERT ROBERSON has graduated from the military academy at Denver Colorado and now is one of the most promising scientists in the air force. MARILENE MEWBORN has become the teacher she looked forward to so long. I find ROY JONES has won the State Agriculture award for the most progressive farmer in Greene County and that he and TENY GAY have a family now.

When I begin to ask questions about the rapid growth in Walstonburg I am very proud to hear that DENNY TYSON owns the new Super Market. RAY HARDISON is manager of the Buick Sales and Service for this district. A.J. WALSTON has opened his long hall speed shop and keeps the cars in shape for BILLY BOYKIN, a successful race driver. KENNETH WINDERS has become a successful newspaper reporter and has written several magazine articles and a book.

Now I am approached by five U.S. soldiers, CECIL CLAYBORNE, RUSSELL MERCER, CHARLES TYSON, MELVIN BASS and SKIPPER HALL, all of whom are now serving their first four years. Now I find that PEGGY HOLLOMAN, RUBY DENTON, HILDA PADGETT and DOROTHY HART have made a career of nursing.

My next conversation is with DOUGLAS KEARNEY and ANDY MEWBORN. Douglas has become a high school coach at a newly opened school for boys, while Andy is the agriculture teacher there. AUSTIN VICK, one of the younger classmates has become a basketball player, professionally. As I continue talking I find that JANIE BURRESS has married and begun raising a family and HELEN MOORE has become a private secretary.

PAT HARRELL is now a secretary for Perry Mason making loads of money. Now I recognize a most elegantly dressed man, JERRY SMITH, who owns his own men's clothing store. Next I hear the voice of a man I have heard quite often in the past years, JIMMY MOORING, an announcer at the local television station. Then I see JULIA COX and CONNIE PARKER who have become beauty operators and RALPH CLAYBORNE, a barber. Then JAMES HUMPHREY, now a preacher gets up to introduce me, but now I realize it wasn't James but mother calling me to get up and go to school.

If we could only harvest the fruits of ones dreams.

Pat many times led the team in scoring and most of the time when Pat shot for the goal, she rung it.. Also, her ability to get past guards helped her to receive this honor. Roy with his jump shot in which he hardly ever missed and his ability to go through guards enabled him to get this honor.

Dainty in dress, quiet and full of fun is Hilda's and Jimmy's motto. Casual, novel in ideas and they're just plain cute.

We Thank Thee Lord

We thank thee, Lord
for a country such as ours
for conscientuous leaders for the right of free expression for our community.

We thank thee, Lord
for school buildings that house our seat of learning for teachers who guide our learning for administrators who seek to improve our educational opportunities.

We thank thee, Lord
for parents who see our mistakes and help us to correct them for parents who love us even when we are not always lovable for parents who give and then forget the gift
for parents

But most of all
We thank thee, Lord, for Thee.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION

I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to all of you students who have taken part in our athletic program this year. You have all been very co-operative and have responded with an all out effort on every occasion. Working with students of your caliber has been a joy for me.

To the Seniors, I say "thank you" for your interest and leadership. May the best of everything be yours in the future.

Best wishes,
